What Are You Thinking?

“When we keep thinking of something we create a thought form. Every time we think of it, we feed the thought form with energy and it can be transformed into a thought-entity. That means it's not just a thought form that lives for a while anymore but it continues to live for a long time and it can start to influence us or other people. If this thought form is karmically entitled to happen, then a certain Angelic Being can enter this thought form, make it its body and continue to work it on the energy world so that it can make it happen.” ~ GMCKS

Power of the Protocols

At this month's PH Q&A session in Portland, Liza Burney shared a remarkable story about using the infection protocol in the Advanced book to save a dog from having his leg amputated. The dog's leg had become so badly infected that the only recourse the vet could offer was to amputate it. Liza got the call and on Tuesday began doing the protocol for infection. She did it Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and on Friday when the vet unwrapped the leg to examine it for its pre-surgery evaluation, the infection had diminished so significantly and the leg was beginning to heal that they decided to put off amputation. Liza continued to work the next week, adding in the regeneration protocol, and by that following Friday the leg was on the road to recovery. Amputation is no longer being considered!

Liza showed the group how much information is in the book beyond the protocol and the importance of our reading all the information. In the book, just after the infection protocol, Master has additional information which gave Liza more tools to work with, including additional and more powerful colors to use and how to use them. It was an excellent reminder to us that Master has given us all the tools and information we need to perform miracles. It's up to us to take the time to read his words and practice what he has taught us, precisely as he has taught us.

Dates for the next PHQ&A will be coming soon!

Tales from Real Life:

“I was just out of an abusive relationship. Even though the other person was many miles away, I felt terrified and vulnerable. It was like most of me was still in this unhealthy situation. I found a Pranic Healer while at PDX while waiting for a flight! After one session I was calm, focused and able to move forward without fear with my new relationship. It felt good to be able to be present for the present. Thank you, GMCKS.”

“When you are praying to the Archangels about something, for you it might be a big problem but to them is nothing because they are handling the entire world. Because they are beings of love, they help you but not in the way you think they help. That’s why we should never tell them what to do, they are a lot smarter than we are. By telling them what to do, we show doubt and disrespect. So you don’t tell them what you want to happen, you just ask for help!”
